“Safe Schools” – Education or Social Engineering?

Are you confused about why we are concerned about the Safe Schools Programme?

Originally promoted as an anti-bullying resource, it's real aim is to normalise sexual diversity while marginalising heterosexuality. To do this, it teaches children to accept gender fluidity where boys feel like girls or girls feel like boys. “Safe Schools” says schools must “affirm” the chosen identity of the child. “Transitions” can happen without parent's knowledge. Schools must also change their uniforms, toilet arrangements, sporting teams and language to be “inclusive of transgender students”. This is something every parent, grandparent and concerned citizen needs to know. Join us for an information evening with Wendy Francis from the Australian Christian lobby as she speaks and answers questions.

When: 7.30pm 7th September

Where: St Michael's Church Hall, 250 Banks St, Dorrington.
